What is a Community of Practice?

- A network of professionals who actively collaborate to share knowledge, solve problems, and improve their practice

Participants Will:

- Learn from the successes and challenges of others implementing Restorative Practices
- Discover how other schools apply Restorative Practices to create positive change
- Connect data to build buy-in and continuous improvement
- Help staff to effectively use circles and impromptu conversations
- Use implementation science as a guide for sustainability

THESE COP SESSIONS ARE DESIGNED FOR:

- Persons implementing Restorative Practices in their classrooms and buildings
- Building or district teams that are implementing and leading Restorative Practices
- School and district leaders coordinating continuous improvement
